Service beyond
your expectations!

Ever wonder how other cultures celebrate Christmas? Well here is your chance to find out. In the special Holiday tour we include an Evening with an Amish Family. Here you will enjoy a meal with the family as you learn their traditions and they learn yours. A fun evening of cultures meeting in a casual atmosphere. Let us include the fantastic American Music Theatre holiday show, a guided “Celebrations Tour” of downtown Lancaster, a Planetarium show, and much more!

The theatre presentation is American Music Theatre’s “Christmas Show” which is constantly being compared to the holiday show at Radio City Music Hall. The unique “Celebrations Tour” explores the ethnic and religious diversity of Lancaster City and provides an inside view of this region’s cultural and religious celebrations. The holiday show at the North Museum’s Planetarium is called “’tis the Season” and is all about the coldest and darkest season – winter. During this show you’ll learn about the historical, religious and cultural rituals practiced around the winter solstice, how these customs involve lighting up the season and, of course, the “Star of Bethlehem.”

You’ll also take part in a holiday cookie-making demonstration and visit the very popular and one-of-a-kind National Christmas Center. And don’t worry – this tour includes plenty of time for holiday shopping too if you want
