Nestled in the middle of Pennsylvania Dutch Country, between the towns of Bird-in-Hand and Intercourse, Kauffman's Fruit Farm & Market offers a relaxed country shopping atmosphere and is a source for famous Amish food items.

Homegrown apples, award-winning sweet apple cider, baking mixes, homemade apple butter, bulk foods, deli – "Oh, this is really yummy!" is a phrase we often hear. Kauffman's Market has that relaxed Amish-country atmosphere that makes our market ideal for group shopping between other scheduled visits; tour leaders can allocate fifteen minutes or forty-five. Our market is small enough that you will find it easy to maintain group integrity during your visit.

- Homegrown apples from our orchards year 'round
- Fill-your-own-basket apples from August to November
- Homegrown cherries, peaches, pears and plums in season
- Homemade, award-winning sweet apple cider year 'round
- Homemade apple cider donuts on the weekends, August – November. Our neighbors rave over these.
- Very large bulk food department and high-quality deli and fresh meats
- Working beehive in a glass observatory
- Guests can relax outside our market and observe Amish country life
- Located close to Bird-in-Hand, Paradise, Intercourse, and Strasburg, along Rt. 340, an AAA-designated Cultural Scenic Byway. See www.kauffmansfruitfarm.com for directions.
